

HOLD YOUR HORSES

HYH COMMUNITY
GARDEN INITIATIVE

Bentley's Blooms

GROW, LEARN, BLOOM TOGETHER

Bentley's Blooms is a new outdoor initiative by the Hold Your Horses community to transform a former dressage arena into a vibrant therapeutic space, including a:

Sensory Garden

Community Garden

Sunflower Sanctuary
surrounding a labyrinth

This project is designed to create a welcoming, hands-on space for clients, volunteers, and the community to foster:

- sensory exploration & therapeutic experiences
- community connection & engagement
- hands-on learning and participation

Current Needs

Currently focused on building and planting our garden beds.

Ways to Support

- Sponsor a raised garden bed
- Donate plants or soil materials
- Contribute building materials
- Volunteer time to help build and plant

Plants

- Sensory plants (mint, lavender, grasses, woolly thyme, etc.)
- Flowers (strawflower, gomphrena, sunflowers)
- Herbs and vegetables

Raised Bed Materials

- Lumber (pressure-treated preferred)
- Landscape fabric
- Screws or hardware

Soil & Fill

- Compost (large quantities needed)
- Topsoil
- Soil amendments

Contact: Loveaya Magnus (loveaya@holdyourhorses.org)
Learn more about HYH at www.holdyourhorses.org

